

Moones Fathi Abdalla is cornea and refractive surgery consultant and surgeon trainer. He started his refractive surgery career since 2009. He has performed over 45000 refractive procedures with a special interest in ectatic disorders management, trained more than 60 surgeons and promoted Refractive Surgery all over the Middle East and Africa helped to establish many centers by educating, training and supervising many of his colleagues in the world and operating in many countries.

Dr. Abdalla has been actively involved as a principal investigator and consultant for many clinical studies and research projects for several Excimer laser, Corneal topography, microkeratomes and Femto second Laser systems and helped to develop many software programs and algorithms for their systems, One of the early investigators of Femtosecond laser technology and one of the first surgeons who started All Femto Refractive Lenticule Extraction (ReLEx) for Myopia & Astigmatism.

He is an active member of many prestigious Ophthalmic Societies in the world. His research has led to over 25 peer-reviewed publications, 4 book chapters, and over 100 international presentations and lectures.